

Page 3

Abstract (in 300 words)

- Brief rundown of what the report covers
- any conclusions/recommendations made by you.

Page 4

Executive Summary

- Findings
- Conclusions
- Recommendations

Page 5

Table of Contents (experiment details)

[you can use relevant tables, graphs, diagrams, pie chart, bar as per subject]

Page 6

Background Theory / Theoretical analysis (results and discussions)

Page 7

Works cited (references)

A proof that the work is free from plagiarism. Example -

1 inch margin ↓

Annotated Bibliography

Centered
citation →

Austen, Jane. Pride and Prejudice. Ignatius Press, 2008.

Indent →

In Pride and Prejudice, the author examines the class differences found in society.

→ Madlox, Alex L. Anna Ali, and Jamie McNamee. Italics
"Effect of Visiting Animals on Patient Recovery". Hospital
Title (Chapter) Observations, ^{edited by Arnold} 2003, Pg, 23. New York: Storey Publishing, 2003, Pg, 23.

Page 8

Acknowledgements

- mention those who have directly helped you in creating report. I would like to acknowledge

Page 9 Bibliography

Some reference useful for report though not directly contributing but good for further reading. ~~would like to acknowledge~~

Page 10 Appendix

Appendix - providing useful but not essential info for the

→ for retirement, graduation speech, farewell speech, gratitude for a loved one, ^{eulogizing} ~~eulogizing~~ if someone has passed away.

Composition

Sometimes sometimes these writings are for developing oratorical performances and eventually essays, narratives. In 20th century the word 'Composition' is used for print or digital media. 'Composition' in U.K universities is a flagship organization for 'Conference on College Composition and Communication'.

'Composition' writing is a way to write structure of any document. Four modes of Composition writing.
① descriptive ② Narrative ③ ~~Expository~~ ^{Expository} ④ argumentative

Good writing includes ⁱⁿ elements of multiple modes of Composition.

Welcome note

→ Welcome to our Company.

→ We are so excited to have you as part of our team.

→ We are glad you have chosen us.

→ Companies use template for new employees that welcome them to new job and brief them about their responsibilities, their position in dept. These templates can be edited quickly to meet the needs of newly appointed people.

Benefits

→ You are aware about the information — who are colleagues, time table, work ethics, policies of the Company.

[Valediction, adieu] Farewell, Send off,

→ I have learnt a lot from working with you over the years.

→ It was an honor to work with you, and

→ was committed to this task always you 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44 45 46 47 48 49 50 51 52 53 54 55 56 57 58 59 60 61 62 63 64 65 66 67 68 69 70 71 72 73 74 75 76 77 78 79 80 81 82 83 84 85 86 87 88 89 90 91 92 93 94 95 96 97 98 99 100

Introduction, Farewell & send off and Condolence.

Commemorative speech

You are memorizing a person, paying tribute to a person, event, idea or place.

→ This type of speech is typically given at a special event or ceremony.

→ The content should highlight why this person, place, organization and event was important.

→ Such speeches need to be meaningful, respectful and courteous.

→ The purpose is to make audience remember.

→ Such speeches are full of emotions, inspiration, hope and information.

→ Choose a theme, Choose Content, Speech outline

↓
a theme consistent with the person or place or event or organization, the impact of speech on audience.

↓
Put significant points, key memories, ideas and information and connections of this person or place with you.

once you have selected a theme, draw outline, highlighting the main points you want to cover. Be Careful that you are paying tribute via subject not merely imparting information. The words should resonate with feeling and emotions.

(4) A good introduction - Your goal is to bring ~~to~~ ^{the} attention the specific accomplishments of the person, so start with attention-getting statement. Build a personal connection with the audience by using figurative language and allow your feelings to merge with subject.

(5) Share Key details - means factual information with personal observation, ~~and~~ ^{by} ~~the~~ ^{means of} contribution of that person or place or organization to society.

(6) Conclude naturally - Conclude naturally, you can cite a quote. You will end by showing how much inspirational the person was and he will inspire to generating in future.

.. Sender's letter address

Date

Mrs. Kusuma Arya
Daffodils Concrete Supplier
Delhi.

Sub - Request for reduction in price

Respected ~~Madam~~

With due respect and honour, it is to state that I am Mrs. Meena Das, owner of 'Durable Mattresses Company'. I decided to extend my company by making two branches at the same time, but the idea on ground reality is going wrong. At this ^{crisis} ~~flux~~ ~~unstable~~ ~~time~~, I am expecting reduction in the price of raw material as my whole saving ~~scheme~~ ^{that} had been gone in ~~the~~ construction and salaries of the employees.

Hope you will think upon it on humanitarian ground.

~~Thankst~~ Thanks and regards

Sign
Name
S

Understanding the audience / How to Deliver a speech
 [Points for good drafting]
Understanding the audience is the connecting part of how to deliver a speech as per the interest of audience, their level of understanding, attitudes and beliefs.

- Speech should be according to audience's perception, selection of words, examples, according to audience
- Through body language you will judge if the audience is interested or not.

- knowing audience means to know their age, gender, religion, language, culture, IQ level etc.
It means the speaker talks more than the audience listens.

[Points for good ^{drafting} ~~draft~~ ~~speech~~] How to Connect more with audience

- Select data for conversation
- Use negative Reviews to facilitate the conversation.
- ^{to regain} Leverage your support platforms.
- Use Charts, diagrams to explain.
- Make Comparison and analysis.

How to analyse audience

- Do not mumble or ^{garble} words. Enunciate words clearly.
- Use paralanguages properly
- Kinetics too is important.

Speech delivery in these ways

[drafting for beginning]

- You can open with a relevant quote
- You can question
- You can dramatize the situation by being silent for one or two minutes.
- You can use powerful statement or phrase to emphasize.

Avoid these bad habits

- Low Energy
- Not rehearsed well
- Lack of pauses
- Lack of inspiration.
- Distracting mannerism

Draft and Structure of Speech

Draft

- early written matter for the speech.
- Structure - To facilitate speech for your audience, make it in three parts:
 - ① Introduction
 - ② Main body
 - ③ Conclusion

Types of Scientific and Technical Reports

- Formal reports in Scientific and Technical field - Research Papers, dissertations and Thesis, Progress Report, Technical manuals, investigation reports, proposals.

Principles of writing Scientific and technical reports -

- ① Good Grammar
- ② Clarity and brevity
- ③ Using Active voice
- ④ Using positive statement
- ⑤ Avoid long sentences
- ⑥ Accessibility to document.

Individual Behaviour
Individual behaviour is affected by external and internal factors. In external factors genes is one of them and external factors environment around him. Human behaviour is generally measured in two ways Optimistic, pessimistic.

Behaviour is the way a person or thing reacts.

Types of Behaviour
behaviour described in many response
molecular behavior - unexpected behaviour
Overt and Covert - visible type of behaviour that can be seen and noticed outside.
can be observed not directly observed
Voluntary and Involuntary Behaviour.
intentional action without control
Qualities of good + Behaviour
Active Ambitious Cautious Creative Curious

Normal behaviour is, which conforms to social norms
Healthy behaviour - enough sleep, eating healthy diet, physical activity, maintaining a healthy body, ^{weight} ~~weight~~ not smoking and limiting alcohol.

Greetings

The way you welcome someone. example 'Hello'. It is a polite gesture. To begin a letter with greeting. But this practice is less common in email.

Examples of formal greetings - good morning / good afternoon
Examples of informal greetings - 'dear', 'dearest', 'Hi'
'It is a pleasure to meet you'.

Definition - Greeting is an act of communication in which intentionally we make our presence known to others. In this way we try to show our relation or social status between individuals or groups of people.

Introductions

Beginning section which states the goal and purpose of an essay book or article. Afterwards it is ^{generally} followed by body and conclusion. Introduction describes the brief summary of the document.

In technical writing introduction includes more standard subsections: abstract (summary), preface (introduction to a book written by the work's author), foreword (introduction written by a different person not author of the work). foreword precedes preface. Preface often closes with acknowledgments of those who assisted in the literary work. Preface covers the ^{points} ~~points~~ like how the book came into being, how the idea of the book developed, every all this followed by thanks and acknowledgments to people who helped author in writing.

Preface is signed by the author, foreword is signed by another person. ^{Extra information} (Prologue) is an opening to a story that establishes the context and gives background details, gives idea about a story tied to the main one and other miscellaneous information.

Prologues are in ancient Greek Drama.

How to write a good introduction

1. Throw an anecdote (a short story with ^{humour} to catch attention.
2. State interesting facts about your topic.
3. As a rhetorical question.
4. Reveal a common misconception about your topic.
5. Set a scene of the story: who, when, where, what?

For essays

Start with something shocking
Start with a pose question
Start with a rhetorical question.
Start with an Anecdote

How to introduce an essay

- ~~It is really good~~
1. Identify your topic
 2. Provide essential context
 3. Indicate your sincere focus in the essay.
 4. It needs to engage your readers interest.
 5. Strong conclusion

Self Introduction

occupation

- Your name and occupation (if not current desired occu
- Key facts about you that will leave indelible ~~imp~~ impact on audience and receiver.

Example - Hi, I am Kavita, I am from Delhi, I am 20 years old. I live ~~there~~ ^{here} with my family. My father is a doctor, my mother is ^a teacher in a government school. I have a young younger brother and sister. I have done ^{12th} from D.P.S. English is my favourite subject. In spare time I prefer to read literary text. 'David Copperfield' is my favourite book. I am a sport person. I ~~took~~ participated in Inter College Badminton Championship and got silver. I like movies my favourite movies are science fiction. I want to be a teacher. [I like listening to music, I enjoy listening to music]

(2)

Letter to Approve a ^{Seller's reply} received Quote ^{or seller's reply}

. Himanshu Software Solutions Pvt. Ltd.

Delhi 110026

Cell —

mail —

Fax —

Dated

To

Mr Ramesh Suri
E and C Electronics
Mumbai

Sub — Answer to your request for quotation

Sir,

This is in reference to quote request which I received from you yesterday. I am attaching the list of my products alongwith prices for your perusal. Please ~~select~~ ^{decide} and inform ^{us} you, we are awaiting for quick delivery.

Thanks and regards

Sign

Name

Enclosure-1

③

Letter to approve a received quote

Mr. Ramesh Suri
E and C Electronics
Mumbai
Cell —
Dated

To

Himanshu Software Solutions Pvt. Ltd.
Delhi 110026

Dear Sir,

Thank you for sending your quotation number 123456. We thoroughly revised your offer and reached on decision to accept it. We are drafting a purchase order corresponding to the referenced quotation and we will share it with you soon.

We are excited about the prospect of doing business with you.

Regards

Sign

Name

→ Enclosed with this letter is the purchase order corresponding to your quotation. Please review our order and do the necessary to proceed with it. We look forward to do business with you.

Regards.

on Friday

2.50 ECE 201

2.00 ICF 201

ECE 11.9.50-204

Quotation Letter Format

Mr. Ramesh Suri
E and C Electronics
Mumbai
Cell No - 823525186
Dated - 18.2.2022

To

Himanshu Software Solutions Pvt. Ltd.
Delhi, 110026

Dear Sir -

I am enquiring about the quotation from you. Our Company is planning to upgrade its system. So, kindly send a detailed quotation related to the packages offered by you. I have attached herewith a list that comprises our requirements.

As your Company is a reputed one, your prices might be competitive. After deciding feasible price, you can send your representative to us to finalize the deal.

We hope to hear positive from you soon.

Thanks and regards.

Sign

Name

Quotations

A letter written by a ~~customer~~ ^{seller or service provider} to ~~enquire~~ ^{inform} about the selling price of a service or goods offered by a ~~supplier~~ ^{him}.

Need - To maintain good business relationship with customer a supplier writes quotations. It can reduce time and efforts of a buyer in enquiring about the prices of materials. It keeps track of all too.

Quotation letter

- ① A formal letter
- ② Written to quote the price of a particular product or service.
- ③ Is sent by a seller or service provider when the customer requests a quotation.

Benefits

- To evaluate the rough idea of cost and expenditure involved in the purchase of an item or multiple items.
- To estimate to or guess reimbursement provided by the company for a particular product or service.

- Why → A request for a quotation is an enquiry about the price and availability of the product or service.
- The main reason behind quotation letter is to evaluate if a particular product or service can be afforded well within the budget of the buyer or not.
- Before sending a quotation request, ensure that you know well about your need; about ^{the} quantity required along with ^{the} specifications. In case you are not sure about something, you can ask the distributor/manufacture and supplier to provide detailed details regarding the same.

Complaint Letter

Venture Lighting Pvt Ltd
Best Sky Tower
N.S.P. Pitampura, Delhi

Pho -

Email -

Fax

February 28, 2022

General Manager
Sales Division
SONY Electronics
Delhi, 110026

Ref - Delay in the Execution of the order

Dear Sir,

We placed our order on 25th August 2000, for ~~Ten (10)~~ Sony TV ^{sets}. Your representative assured us ~~the~~ about the delivery within two weeks, but, we have not received the goods yet.

~~Due to late delivery~~ ✓

Due to late delivery, we have lost our customers as well as our goodwill.

Please make prompt delivery of goods ensuring not later than 1 March 1st, 2022.

• Regards

Mr. VIPIN Sharma
Sales Manager
Venture Lighting

Reply of the Same

SONY Electronics
Chandni Chowk
Delhi
Ph email Fax

1st March 2022

Mr. VIPIN Sharma
Sales Manager
Venture Lighting
N.S.P. Pitampura, Delhi

Ref - Delivery of the pending goods

Dear Sir,

In reference to your ~~As per~~ letter of complaint for ten (10) SONY TV sets, I want to assure you, the goods have been dispatched. Till March 2nd 2022, you will get it. I apologize for delay. As a Compensation you will get one wrist watch with each TV set.
Hoping forward for healthy & relation in future

Paragraph writing

- Start with a topic sentence that tells the subject and main idea. • In next 3 to 5 lines, present evidence, give examples, present facts or story to support main idea.
- You can use transition phrases like 'in addition to', 'however' for well flow in ~~para~~ paragraph.
- A Paragraph is a series of sentences that are coherently related to a single topic.
- kinds — narrative, descriptive, ^{explanatory, — an essay explains a series of events} expository and persuasive.
- Elements of paragraph — topic sentence, developing details and concluding sentence.

Park Lane,
Kolkata
Feb 10,

MD

X Y Z. Ltd

Sub: Purchase of Furniture (asking question or query request for information)

Enquiry Letter

- ① - Park Lane,
Kolkata.
 - ② 25th February 2002
 - ③ — Manish Cookware
Delhi Gate
Delhi
 - ④ — Subject - Enquiry about the Exchange Scheme
 - ⑤ — Dear Sir,
- I saw your advertisement in Newspaper today, where you have discussed an exchange scheme. The scheme is regarding the exchange of old utensils with the new. non-stick cookware. I have some old utensils, which I wanted to exchange against the one offered through the exchange scheme.
- Kindly explain more about the scheme and all its terms and conditions. Also, update me if ~~there~~ there is a possibility of ~~sending~~ ^{exchanging} and ~~receiving~~ the items through parcel, or the physical presence is mandatory.

— Thanks and regards

⑦ — Sign

⑧ — Name

⑨

(formal investigation)
Inquiry for job position

Park Street
Kolbatta

Date: Feb 20, 2021

Principal
BVCOE
Paschim Vihar
Delhi

Subject - Inquiry for job position

Dear Sir/Madam

Thank you for taking time to review my resume. I have recently ^{Completed Post-doctoral} ~~graduated~~ from SPCC College, DV. And I am currently looking for a position in ^{an} MBA College.

I am interested in teaching job, it will brush up my knowledge of Industry and ^{with providence chance for leverage} ~~practical~~ application in ^{the} Class. I am attaching my CV for your ~~personal~~ perusal.
^{awaiting} ~~Hoping~~ for a ~~prompt~~ positive reply soon.

Yours sincerely

• Regards

Sign

Name

~~under art~~
~~on the way~~
~~and way~~

Park Lane
Kolkata

Date Feb 25,

Date -

To,

~~VENTURE LIGHTING Ltd~~

~~Lucknow~~

The C.E.O

~~TO,~~

Venture Lighting Ltd.

Delhi

Subject - Application for the post of Senior A/c

Dear Sir,

In reference to your advertisement in Tol dated 15.1.2021, I present my Candidature for the post of senior accountant in your reputed firm.

I have a rich experience of about ~~12~~ twelve years in ~~the field in~~ various ^{fields} ~~roles~~ of accounting.

I am well versed in TALLY 9 and other software like MS. Office.

A detailed CV is enclosed for your perusal.

An early and positive response is awaited.

Thanking you.

Regards.

Encl: CV

Reply Letter

Rakesh Kumar
Park Street
Kolbatta 110037
Ph- 882452132

→ (1) Sender's info

Dated

_____ (2) Date

The Director

ABVP

~~Park Avenue~~ Paschim Vihar
Kolbatta Delhi

_____ (3) Address of the receiver

Dear Sir,

Thank you for contacting me for donation under the ^{egis} 'Child Care'.

I appreciate your commitment to the cause. I would be pleased to make a contribution to this worthy organization.
A ^{cheque} of five thousand is enclosed here. Please send me a receipt of for my record.

Thanks and regards _____

Name

Sign

Designation

Enclosure: 1

(6)

Subscription

(7)

Sign and name of the sender

(5)

body

Page 3

→ ~~Warm~~ I will ^{cherish} ~~remember~~ you with warm thoughts and memories.

- My best wishes
- My best regards

Condolence

- Expressing sympathy on the occasion of death of a person's relative or close friend.
- I am deeply broken by the loss of my close friend.
- my ^{deep/sincere} Condolences.
- Rip
- my deepest sympathies with the family.
- may my sincere condolence bring comfort to the ~~bereaved~~ ^{grieved} family.
- I am deeply broken by the sudden demise of my beloved -- articles

Some rare cases when 'A' is used prior to vowels -

- A one eyed man.
- A European man.
- An heir
- An honest girl
- An hour
- ~~an~~

Definite article 'The'

- Before the names of Seas, Oceans, Rivers, Mountains, Islands, gulfs, deserts, historical buildings, monuments, heavenly bodies, ships, trains, newspapers, banks, scriptures, magazines, Political parties, holy books, hotels, directions we use 'the'.
- Before Singular noun, at
- Before particular person, thing, book.
- Before superlative adjectives.
- Before musical ~~instrum~~ instruments.
- Before adverb with Comparatives.

Degrees of Comparison

- (1) Positive Degree
- (2) Comparative Degree
- (3) Superlative Degree

bright

beautiful

busy brighter

more beautiful

busier

brightest

most beautiful

busiest

↓
here Comparison between 2

↓
here Comparison
among three, four,
a group

~~hot~~

~~hotter~~

~~hott~~

→ These three degrees describe rational value of one thing.

①

IInd Terminal Test One word for a number of words

- ① A Very large quantity of something - abundance
- ② Extremely ridiculous or completely lacking in reason: absurd
- ③ Natural attraction or inherent similarity: affinity
- ④ Friendly and pleasant: amiable
- ⑤ Pervading atmosphere: ambience
- ⑥ one who can use both of his hands equally well: ambidextrous
- ⑦ Loss of memory: amnesia
- ⑧ Belief that plants, objects and natural things have soul: animism
- ⑨ Occurring once a year: annual
- ⑩ Remedy against a poison: antidote
- ⑪ one who has an irresistible desire for alcoholic drinks: alcoholic
- ⑫ Insensibility to suffering: apathy
- ⑬ A place for keeping bees: apiary
- ⑭ A place where official records are kept: archives
- ⑮ Loud enough to be heard: audible
- ⑯ opposed to do something: averse
- ⑰ To punish or criticize severely: castigate

- (18) Government by a sovereign with ~~can~~ uncontrolled or absolute power: autocracy / dictatorship
- (19) Animals that can live both on land and water ^{a)} Called: amphibians
- (20) One who studies the evolution of mankind;
Anthropologist.
- (21) A person who loves books: bibliophile
- (22) A person who steals books: bibliophile
- (23) Carefree and joyous: blithe
- (24) A woman with light coloured hair: blonde
- (25) The art of beautiful handwriting: Calligraphy
- (26) One who eats human flesh: ^{One who eats flesh} Carnivore
- (27) To punish or criticize severely: Castigate
- (28) An underground place for storing wine: cellar
- (29) A detailed narrative: chronicle
- (30) Fear of being enclosed in a small enclosed space, claustrophobia.
- (31) A period of ten years: decade
- (32) To remove from a former position: ^{dislodge} ~~dislodge~~
- (33) Easy to train or teach: docile
- (34) A widespread occurrence of an infectious disease in a community at a particular time; epidemic
- (35) To praise or glorify: extol
- (36) The face of a building: facade.

- 1) Suresh is healthy. - (adj)
- 2) Suresh possesses wealth. (noun)
- 3) These two sisters differ greatly. (verb)
- 4) There is a great difference between these two sisters (noun)
- 5) She can move freely. (verb + adverb)
- 6) She has the freedom of movement (noun + noun)
- 7) The climate of Agra differs from that of Meerut. (verb)
- 8) The climate of Agra is different ^{than} from that of Meerut. (adjective)
- 9) He reads the book attentively (adverb)
- 10) He ~~was~~ ^{is} attentive in reading the book (adj)
- 11) He attempted successfully. - (adv)
- 12) He succeeded in his attempt. (verb)
- 13) He always speaks with care (noun)
- 14) He always speaks carefully. (adv)
- 15) She always speaks carefully. (adv)

Correction in Noun Syntax

- 1) Riches has wings. (X)
 Riches have wings. (C)
- 2) He is true to his words. (X)
 He is true to his word. (C)
- 3) There are many different people in Europe. (X)
 There are many different peoples in Europe. (C)
- 4) ~~My shoes is black.~~ (X)
 ~~My shoes are black.~~ (X)
 My pair of shoes is black is also (C)
- 5) I have broken my spectacles. (X)
 I have broken my spectacles. (C)
- 6) She has read many poetries of Tagore. (X)
 She has read many poems of Tagore. (C)

- 1) The news is not true. (C)
- 2) The first innings is over. (C)
- 3) Economics is my favourite subject. (C)

Syntax of Pronouns

- ① ^I You, ^{II} he, and ^I I are the candidates for the post.
- ② You and he live in the hostel. (C)
You and he lives in the hostel. (W)
- ③ He ~~and~~ I am class-fellows. (W)
He and I are class-fellows. (C)
- ④ ~~You and~~ One must keep his promise. (W)
One must keep one's promise. (C)
- ⑤ I am sure it was not him. (W)
I am sure it was not he. (C)
- ⑥ We enjoyed at the theatre. (W)
We enjoyed ourselves at the theatre. (C)
- ⑦ None of us know it. (W)
None of us knows it. (C)
- ⑧ Ramesh and Suresh love one another. (W) (one another for more than two)
Ramesh and Suresh love each other. (C) (each other for two subjects)
- ⑨ Yours is the best essay. (C) (implied possession yours is the correct choice)
Yours is the best essay. (W)
- ⑩ I met a man yesterday who was blind. (W)
~~met~~ yesterday I met a man who was blind. (C)

Syntax of Adjectives

- ① Shyam is the wisest of the two. (W)
Shyam is the wiser of the two. (C)
- ② He is getting well day by day. (W)
He is getting better day by day. (C)
- ③ The flowers smell sweetly. (W)
The flowers smell ^{adjective} sweet. (C)
- ④ This is the more better. (W)
This is much better. (C) (abstract nouns (better))
- ⑤ No less than fifty boys were present. (W)
No fewer than fifty boys were present. (C)
- ⑥ Hold these books in the both hands. (W)
Hold these books in both the hands. (C)
- ⑦ Shakespeare is greatest than any other poet. (W)
Shakespeare is greater than any other poet. (C)

Do not make a noise. (c)

Both the children are safe (C)

she saw a snake in the grass ③

He is an heir to the throne. (C)

This is a useful thing. (c)

man is a social animal. (C)

Gold is a costly metal (c)

The more you read, the more you understand. ©

Common Errors in the use of verbs

The Captain with his crew was drowned. (C)

many a boy is doing his work (C)

Jagdish knows how to swim. (C)

The manager appointed him a clerk. (C)

If you work hard, you will pass.

Harish as well as Shirish is to blame. (C)

The horse and carriage have arrived at the door

(C)

Each of these mangoes is rotten - (E)

A great many boys have failed. (C)

Common Errors in the use of Adverbs

- ① He is kindly requested to let us know this. (W)
He is requested kindly " " " " " " (C)
- ② He was too glad to see me. (W)
He " very " " " " " (C)
- ③ This room is enough large for him. (W)
" " " large enough " " (C)
- ④ She went directly to her house. (W)
" " to her house direct. (C)
- ⑤ Ram can run very fastly. (W)
Ram " " " fast. (C)
- ⑥ He lived here seven years before. (W)
" " " " " ago. (C)
- ⑦ He will have to pay dear for his sins. (W)
" " " " " dearly " " " (C)
- ⑧ ~~There is no~~

Common Errors of Conjunctions

- ① As he is fat, so he runs slowly. (W)
As he is fat, he runs slowly. (C)
- ② When you will go there then he will welcome you. (W)
When you go there, he will welcome you. (C)
- ③ Until you do not come, I shall not go. (W)
Until you come, I shall not go. (C)
- ④ They had hardly gone a few steps that they saw a lion;
They had hardly gone a few steps when they saw a lion.
- ⑤ No sooner he started, it began to rain. (W)
No sooner did he start ^{than} it began to rain. (C)

Syntax of Prepositions

- ① I came here at four o'clock. (Point of time)
I shall leave in a few days. (Period of time)
- ② We live in India (Considerable point of space)
He lives at a small village. (Particular point in space)
- ③ She lives at Noida in Uttar Pradesh.
- ④ The child was bitten by a snake.
- ⑤ He writes with a pen.
- ⑥ She will come back within a month. / She will be back before 8' o'clock.

Affirmative Indefinite Tenses (Present) Ist terminal ⑤

Negative

- 1 I play hockey
- 2 He writes a letter
- 3 You bathe in the river.

- ① I do not play hockey.
- ② He does not write a letter
- ③ You do not bathe in the river.
- ④ Raju never tells a lie.

Interrogative sentences

- Do I play hockey? Why do I play hockey?
- ② Does he write a letter? When does he write a letter?
- ③ Do you bathe in the river? Do you not bathe in the river?
- ④ Does Raju tell a lie? Why does Raju not tell a lie?

Present Continuous Tense

Affirmative

Negative

- ① I am playing hockey
- ② He is writing a letter
- ③ You are bathing in the river.

1. I am not playing hockey.
2. He is not writing a letter.
3. You are not bathing in the river.

Interrogative Sentences

1. Am I ^{not} playing hockey?
- ② Is he ^{not} writing a letter?
3. Are you ^{not} bathing in the river?
- ① Why am I playing hockey?
- ② Where is he writing a letter?
- ③ When are you bathing in the river?

Present - Perfect Tense

Affirmative

- ① I have played hockey.
- ② He has written a letter.
- ③ You have bathed in the river.

Negative

- I have not played hockey
- He has not written a letter.
- You have not bathed in the river.

Interrogative

- ① Have I played hockey?
- ② Has he written a letter?
- ③ Have you bathed in the river?
- Why have I played hockey?
- Where has he written a letter?
- When have you bathed in the river?

Past Indefinite Tense

Affirmative

- ① He told a lie yesterday.
- ② We called Ravi today.
- ③ My father used to keep fast.
- ④ He did abuse me.

Negative

- ① He did not tell a lie yesterday.
- ② We did not call Ravi today.
- ③ My father did not use to keep fast.
- ④ He did not abuse me.

Interrogative

- ① Did he tell a lie yesterday?
- ② Did we call Ravi today?
- ③ Did my father use to keep fast?
- ④ Did he abuse me?

sentences

- ① Why did he tell a lie yesterday?
- ② Why did we call Ravi today?
- ③ When did my father use to keep fast?
- ④ Where did he abuse me?

Past Continuous Tense

Affirmative

- ① I was going to Delhi yesterday.
- ② I was waiting for you.
- ③ They were buying mangoes.

Negative

- ① I was not going to Delhi yesterday.
- ② I was not waiting for you.
- ③ They were not buying mangoes.

Interrogative Sentences

- ① Was I going to Delhi yesterday?
- ② Was I waiting for you?
- ③ Were they buying mangoes?
- ① When was I going to Delhi yesterday?
- ② When was I waiting for you?
- ③ Why were they buying mangoes?

Past Perfect Tense

Affirmative

- ① ~~He~~ Krishna had already written the letter.
- ② I had finished my work by four o'clock.
- ③ The bell had gone before the principal reached the school.
- ④ Madam ^{had} come here after you ^{went} had gone.

Negative

1. Krishna had not already written the letter.
2. I had not finished my work by four o'clock.
3. The bell had not gone before the principal reached the school.
4. Madam ~~had~~ ^{did} not come here after you ~~had~~ ^{went} gone.

Interrogative Sentences

- ① Had Krishna already written the letter?
- ② Had I finished my work by four o'clock?
- ③ Had the bell gone before the principal reached the school?
- ④ Had Madam come here after you went?

Future Indefinite Tense

(7)

Affirmative

- 1 I shall go there today.
- 2 Pramod will accompany us.
- 3 You will play football.
- 4 The weather will be dry tomorrow.
- 5 I will help him.

Negative

- ① I shall not go there today
- ② Pramod will not accompany us.
- ③ You will not play football
- ④ The weather will not be dry tomorrow.
- ⑤ I will not help him.

Interrogative sentences

- 1 Shall I go there today?
- 2 Will Pramod accompany us?
- 3 Will you play football?
- 4 Will the weather be dry tomorrow?
- 5 Will I help him?

- ① Where shall I go there? ^{Thursday}
- ② When will Pramod accompany us?
- ③ Why will you play football?

Direct and Indirect Speech Text terminated

Hari said to me, "I want to help you now."

Hari told me that he wanted to help me then.

Subject + ~~Reporting~~ + object verb

Hari + said + to me
Direct Speech —

Two parts — Reporting Clause, Reporting speech

Reporting Clause

Reported Speech

Speaker + Reporting verb + object
(subject) + verb
Hari + said + to me

Here speaker's words
"I want to help you now"

① The teacher says, "Mohan will pass."

The teacher says that Mohan will pass.

2. The servant says, "Dinner is ready."

The servant says that dinner is ready.

3. The peon will say, "The manager is out." (future tense)

The peon will say that the manager is out.

4. The boy said, "Rakesh writes neatly." (Past indefinite)

The boy said that Rakesh wrote neatly.

5. He said to me, "Ran is writing a book." (Past continuous)

He told me that Ran was writing a book.

③ Kurum said to her, "Lata has written a letter to me."
Kurum told her that Lata had written a letter to her. (Part Perfect)

① ⑦ Sarita said to me, "It has been raining since now."
② Sarita told me that it had been raining since now. The (Part Perfect)

④ ⑧ Part Indefinite to Part Perfect change.

① The man said, "Ram wrote a letter to his brother."
The man said that Ram had written a letter to his brother.

② Past Continuous to Part Perfect Continuous change.

③ ② Veena said, "Radha was singing a song."
④ Veena said that Radha had been singing a song.

Part Perfect to Part Perfect Continuous change

③ He said, "She had been sleeping for two hours."

① He said that she had been sleeping for two hours.

② ⑦ Shall, should, would, will, would change

③ I said, "I shall read."

I said that I should read.

⑤ The jailor said ^{to the lawyer}, "The prisoner may go."
The jailor told the lawyer that the prisoner might go.

Universal truth

The preacher said, "The planets move around the sun."

The preacher said that the planets move around the sun.

The teacher said, "Forests prevent soil-erosion."

The teacher said that forests prevent soil-erosion.

Interrogative Sentences

Q- Do you not like to go there?

A- Yes, I like to go there.

Sunil said to her, "Will you not help me?"

Sunil asked her if she would not help him.

Hari said to Gopal, "Are you going home?"

Hari asked Gopal if he was going home.

Future Perfect Continuous Tense

Affirmative

The boys will have been playing the football match for two hours.

We shall have been discussing this subject since 4 O'clock.

Negative Sentences

① He will not have been travelling for two days.

② We shall not have been learning music for four months.

Interrogative

① Shall I have been waiting for you for ~~ten~~^{one} hour?

② Where will he have been reading for ten years?

Conditional Sentences

① If you work hard, you will get a scholarship.

② If it does not rain, the crops will be ruined.

③ If you like, you may go.

④ If you act upon my advice, I shall be happy.

⑤ If you had come in time, I would have helped you.

⑥ Had you ^{or} come in time, I would have helped you.

⑦ Had my friend been here, he would have protected ^{me}.

⑧ If they had not been brave, they would have been defeated.

Rule - ① If Condition is in present, both the clauses in any one clause, the verb of will be in present.

② If Condition is in past in any clause, the verb of both clauses in past.

③ If Condition is in future in any clause, the verb of one clause (having condition) in present and other clause verb in future.

Future Continuous Tense

- ① I shall be going to Varanasi this evening.
- ② The boys will be obeying their teachers.
- ③ We shall be reading the book tomorrow.

Negative

① The farmers will not be ploughing their fields tomorrow.

② I shall not be washing my clothes on Sunday.

Interrogative

① Will you be watering the plants tomorrow evening?

② Shall I be serving you tomorrow?

③ Where will they be staying tonight?

Rule - subject + shall be / will be + verb + ing. First person - 'shall be', second or third person - 'will be'.

Future Perfect Tense

Positive

- ① The postman will have delivered the post by now.
- ② I shall have solved all the sums before it is dark.

Negative

① You will not have reached the station before the train arrives.

② When you come here, I shall not have taken a walk.

Interrogative

- ① Will you have read the book when he comes to take it?
- ② How many lessons will he have revised before the examination begins?

Adan said to me, "Have you written a letter to Rajesh?"
Adan inquired of me if I had written a letter to Rajesh.

He said to me, "What is your name?"
He asked me what my name was.

My mother said to me, "When will you go there?"

My mother asked me when I would go there.

The teacher said Imperative sentences ~~to~~ to the boys, "Sit down."

The teacher ordered the boys to sit down.

The teacher said, "Mohan, bring your books."

The teacher ordered Mohan to bring his books.

The doctor said to the patient, "Do not eat too much."

The doctor advised the patient not to eat too much.

The boy said to his father, "Please give me a pen."

The boy requested his father to give him a pen.

usage of Let

① He shouted, "Let me go".

He proposed that he should go.

or
He shouted to let him go.

2. He said to his noisy companions, "Let me finish this work in peace."

He requested his noisy companions to let him finish the work in peace.

3. "Then the Duke of Wellington said, 'Let the whole line advance.'"

Then the Duke of Wellington ordered the whole line to advance.

Exclamatory Sentences

Lila said, "Good-bye, my sister!"

Lila bade her sister good bye.

The Captain said, "Hurrah! We have won the match."

The Captain exclaimed with joy that they had won the match.

The Captain said, "Bravo! Well done."

The Captain applauded the players saying that it was — well done.

The merchant said, "Alas! I am undone."

The merchant exclaimed with sorrow that he was undone.

Optative Sentences

The beggar said, "May God bless you!"

The beggar prayed that God might bless him.

The mother said to her son, "May you prosper in life."

The mother wished that her son might prosper in life.

He said, "Happy New year".

He wished me a happy New year.

Pupa said, "May my enemy go to hell!"

Pupa cursed that her enemy might go to hell.