

Mid-term Examination

Third Semester (B.Tech. LE students) January 2023

Paper Code: HS-203

Subject: Indian Knowledge System

Time: 1.5 Hrs.

Max Marks: 30

Note: Q. No.1 is compulsory. Attempt three questions in all.

Q.1

- What is the importance of Indian knowledge System? State the role of this knowledge in modern context. (2.5 marks)
- What is the role of Yog in our lives? How does it help in reducing stress challenges? (2.5 marks)
- Write key features of Sanskrit language which make it most suitable for NLP. (2.5 marks)
- Mnemonics are obtained by combining sets of letters specified in which sutras? (2.5 marks)

Q.2

- Name the four Vedas and why are they called apauruseya? What is their significance and contribution in modern society? (4 marks)
- Describe briefly the qualities of all four yugas as per the Vedic corpus. Why the Vedas have been identified as world heritage? (4 marks)
- State why and how our Indian scientists fought the patent on Haldi against USA? (2 marks)

Q.3

- What are the key characteristics of a place value system of numerals? How is it advantageous? (5 marks)
- What are the uses of a word or letter numeral system? Name the two systems followed to represent numbers in ancient literature and poetry. (2.5 marks)
- Discuss the contributions made by Bhaskaracharya in the field of ancient mathematics? (2.5 marks)

Q.4

- What are the unique aspects of the Sanskrit grammar propounded by Panini? (6 marks)
- What are the ways by which one can generate noun forms in Sanskrit? Similarly, explain how verb forms can be generated. (4 marks)